Treelight means exceptional value

At Treelight, intelligent property sales isn't just what we do, it's who we are. So when you engage us to help sell your property – we can't help but give it our all. We measure ourselves by our ability to get the best price for your home or investment property.

So we go to great lengths to help ensure that we deliver the exceptional return you seek.

It means ethical vision

Delighting our clients is key to our vision.

But Treelight is much more than a commercial entity. We're acutely aware of our responsibilities to the broader community, and we're committed to bettering the lives of those less fortunate, through partnerships with the Royal Children's Hospital Educational Institute and others.

It means thorough presentation

Any property sale can be enhanced through effective presentation. This may seem a truism, but it's often overlooked. So we make sure we consult with Sydney's leading interior design and property valuation consultancies.

At Treelight maximising sale value is our sole focus, because we want your first Property with us to be the first of many.

It means committed service

We want you to enjoy your property selling experience. We want it to be stress-free, streamlined and, of course, profitable.

So we do everything required to help make that happen, from extensive market research and valuation, due diligence and presentation analysis, right through to specialist negotiation and legal services.

And it means outstanding people

Opportunities abound; the challenge is uncovering them – and capitalising on them. And only outstanding people can do that.

So at Treelight, we seek out the best. The best employees and the best business partners. People with proven experience and a passion for property. Original thinkers who know that to find the right answers, you need to ask the right questions. Principled individuals who aim to exceed expectations, not just meet them.

You're in safe hands

With our official memberships and certifications, Treelight abides by a strict code of ethics and conduct.

“Treelight is a very professional business that places a lot of emphasis on due diligence and attention to detail.

I was very comfortable using Treelight and will look to doing more business through them in the near future. I have no hesitation in recommending them! ”
